Mr. President,

I acknowledge receipt of your letter and allow me to explain the slowness of our return. Indeed, as for the CNIL, we have a protection of individual information that comes into play. It is known as the Privacy Act Waiver. Therefore, our embassy must receive a response from our legal department in Washington.

We have that authorization. But as you must know. A cyclone is currently affecting Fiji and so I will have to wait for our embassy to reopen before I can reply.

I am sorry for the delay and invite you to call me on +689 89 777 654 if necessary. Sincerely ,
Christopher Kozely
